

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Pre-implantation genetic diagnosis... Dealing with difficult families in the clinical care setting... Cross-cultural meanings of family responsibility... Parental decision making in a three-parent family... Resource allocation and the elderly...

The theme of the 2008 Canadian Bioethics Society Conference is “family...”. The Conference Abstract Committee invites proposals for papers, workshops and posters that reflect the diversity of philosophies, disciplines, and methodologies relating to the examination of family as a construct and a clinical reality. Proposals on other topics in bioethics are also welcomed.

Papers: Those wishing to be considered for a 30-minute oral presentation (20 minute presentation with 10 minutes for questions) must submit a 250-word abstract on the Official Abstract Form.

Posters: Those wishing to be considered for a poster presentation must submit a 250-word abstract on the Official Abstract Form.

Workshop: Groups wishing to present their work in the format of a 90-minute interactive workshop must submit a two to three page, double-spaced outline of the proposal workshop and a 250-word abstract (abbreviated version of the full proposal) on the Official Abstract Form.

Student Abstract Competition: Students may submit their abstract to the general Call for Abstracts or to the Student Abstract Competition. Students need not identify themselves as students in the general Call for Abstracts. For information about the Student Abstract Competition, please consult the Student section on the conference website.

OFFICIAL ABSTRACT FORM:

Abstracts must be submitted camera-ready on the Official Abstract Form for reproduction in the conference program. Preferred font size is 12 points. Preferred font is Times New Roman. Abstract must fit on single page.

Abstracts may be submitted (and papers presented) in English or French. The Official Abstract Form is available in both languages: Official Abstract Form \(English\) and Formulaire officiel de présentation des résumés \(French\). Abstracts must be submitted by email as an attachment to: cbsc2008@easternhealth.ca Hard copies and faxed copies will not be accepted.
