March 29, 2023 – April 11, 2023

London Health Sciences Centre (LHSC) is a world-class academic health sciences centre located in the southwestern Ontario city of London. Just two hours from Toronto and two hours from Detroit, London features a beautiful and walkable downtown core located on the Thames River, a vibrant culinary scene and scores of activities that highlight local arts, culture and music. As one of Canada's largest acute-care teaching hospitals, LHSC is a world-class innovator in clinical care, research and teaching, delivering both local and regional services, including the Children's Hospital, within a large geographic area. LHSC has a workforce of close to 15,000, dedicated to delivering the highest quality patient care while working together to shape the future of health.

The Office of Health Ethics at London Health Sciences Centre invites applicants for a one-year fellowship in Applied Health Ethics starting in Sept 2023. A second-year extended fellowship may be available to the successful fellow.

The Office of Health Ethics provides clinical, organizational, and research ethics support to a broad range of services that include acute care, pediatrics, mental health and addictions, regional cancer and renal services, in addition to primary, ambulatory, and long-term care.

The fellowship provides opportunities to work with our partners including Western University's Office of Human Research Ethics, The Schulich School of Medicine and Dentistry, and the Faculty of Health Sciences.

The purpose of the fellowship is to equip future practicing healthcare ethicists with core competencies needed to manage clinical and organizational ethics consultation. This includes providing experience in research ethics and teaching. Fellows are expected to develop one academic paper appropriate for publication during the program. The program will use the American Society for Bioethics and Humanities Core Competencies as a framework for evaluation.

The ideal candidate will hold a graduate degree in a field relevant to bioethics (e.g., bioethics, law, medical science, or philosophy). Strong consideration will be given to candidates with academic training in bioethics who also have training and experience in a regulated health profession (e.g., medicine, nursing, occupational therapy, social work).

What we offer:
